Members of the Old Home Congregation Take a Last Farewell. THE FIRST CHURCH IS DESERTED.

Recollections of the Division of the Original Church.

NOTES FROM THE CLASS MEETING BOOK

The last services in the First M. P. Church, Fifth avenue, were held yesterday. Sunday school services were held at 9:15 A. M. At 10:30 the last baptisms were made. They were Addison, Mary and Anna Boss, Hazel A. Zimmerman and Blanch Humphries Wiley. The reception into full membership of the following candidates also ook place: Clara E. Patton, Elmer D. Miller, Nellie B. Miller, Clara E. Stewart, Mary E. Brokaw, Bertha M. Chantler, William W. Wilson, Charles C. Rinehart and A. Kirk Gillespie. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. J. Murray, of Baltimore, a former pastor of the church. At 2 o'clock a historical meeting was held. It was presided over by Rev. John Scott, D. D., ex-pastor of the congregation. Rev. John Cowl, the oldest living ex-pastor, was to have delivered an address, but was unable to be present owing to iff health. Rev. David Jones, D. D., the present pastor, gave a short sketch of the early history of the church. During his remarks he said it was a singular coincidence that there had never been any serious controversy in the faith of the church, although it was represented in almost every nation on the globe. Another kind of controversy prose. That concerning the government which caused secession. Complaints were made about the way Wesley ruled according to his own mind. Hs never surrendered his power and it was probably the best

Objected to a Division of Power, When the church was organized in America in 1784 and 1792, the bishops were given the same power which soon caused dissenlon. Attacks were made on them by the reachers and in 1820 a change was made. When this church was organized for some cason the word episcopal was left out of the charter and the nine trustees, seven of the charter and the nine trustees, seven of whom were returners, accepted the charter. The congregation then met in the Smithfield street churca and it was adopted by a vote of 100 to 50. When Rev. George Brown was called to the pustorate in May, 1822, the minority threatened to prosecute, but notwithstanding the threat he was secured and on June 24 the new laws the same as had been adopted in Baltimore were adopted. This church was the first one ever organized in this city, and its history ever organized in this city, and its history remains unbroken until the present day. The old Smithfield street church is a seces-The old Smithfield street church is a secession from this one, as the records will show. Prior to 1828 this was the Methodist Episcopal. When Rev. George Brown came the church divided into two parties. The meetings were held in the old church on First street at 9 a. M. and 3 r. M. by one party, and at 11 a. M. and 7 r. M. by the other. Then the church was taken possession of by the Methodists, and the M. E. brethren brought a suit of electthe M. E. brethren brought a suit of eject-ment. It was tried before Judge Rodgers nd went to the jury without argument, is oder that an appeal could be taken. The order that an appeal could be taken. The jury returned in favor of the M. E., and a motion for a new trial was made, which was refused and an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court. In 1831 Chief Justice Gibson handed down the opinion that in every aspect of the case it was in layor of the defendants, and the new trial was granted, but it never came to a trial, as the proposition made to the Mcthodist Episcopal branch to divide the property was accepted by them—the

the property was accepted by them—the Methodist Episcopals to take the Smithfield property and the reformers the First street property, the burying ground and $2,000. Then this present property was purchased and it has proved a good investment. Only One Pastor Died at His Post, During Rev. George Brown's pastorate the egation increased from 270 to between 500 and 600. Rev. Cornelius Springer was the next and later Rev. Mr. Elliott, who served two years and then one year and died during the last term. He was the only one to die while pastor of this church.

Then came Dr. Cowl, Dr. Scott, Drs. Mc-Reever, Murray and others. In the records of the class meetings are some curious things. In Brother Avory's book, opposite the names of those who were absent, were written comments, such as "Needs to be looked after," "Absent too often," and so on all through the book. On the roll of member-hip opposite the name of a member is written, "Withdrawn in wrath; may God have pity on him," and 20 years later this years and then one year and died of ave pity on him, and 20 years later this time man was elected Mayor of this city bile incorperated in the county jail. Of the 270 members on June 24, 1829, but two of the 20 members on June 24, 1823, but two calive and they were both present yesters afternoon. One of them sang in the oir until 1860. The oid members are Mrs. seconds and Mrs. Mary Miller.

Lev. David Jones called the two old ladies the alter where they kissed each other distance the daying the dear old church, where they have the two old ladies the same the day of church, where they caving the dear old church, where they worshiped for so many years. The was very pathetic and there was a seene was very pathetic and there was a sable moisture in many eyes and harried application of handkerchiefs. In the same of t

I sang alone, and so on throughout the whole of the hymn. It was very embarrasing to me, but I stack it out. The worst of it was that the choir had arrived and made no endrayor to assist me." Last Service in the Old Home Church, At the evening service Rev. Mr. Scott preached the last sermon in the old church. His text was second Timothy, 4th chaper, seventh and eighth verses. He said the words of the text were written when Paul was a prisoner in Rome. The time for his execution had cen set and he was ready to go. He had tought the fight and was ready. They were full of loving instructions to his son, whom he

the boys of the school make this street their playground at present, the danger of their being injured when the street becomes a thoroughfare is obvious, and a ward for them to play in will have to be provided.

Mr. Bankerd, of the School Board, says that the best location for the new building will be to the east of the present structure, allowing the old building to remain standing for school purposes until the new one is completed, so that other quarters will not have to be rented. The site of the old building will serve as a yard for the boys. As all the members of the board are property owners and in favor of the new building, the school children will probably have better quarters this coming winter. BUSINESS OFFICE. A day's ramble in the country now is very delightful. The fruit trees are in full bloom, the bluet, violet and buttercup cover the fields, and the grain is beginning to grow fields, and the grain is beginning to grow finely. If an abundance of blossoms mean anything, then the fruit crop this year will be very large. Farmers say they haven't seen so many apple blossoms for years at here are this spring, and unless the buds have been injured by the late spring they expect a wonderful crop. The output of apples about ten years ago was phenomenal, and the production has not been as heavy since.
